

INAUGURAL ANTELOPE VALLEY VETERANS DAY PARADE SPONSOR

Just imagine – you can be among the first to be involved in the Inaugural Antelope Valley Veterans Day Parade to be held this year in downtown Lancaster! At 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 7, 2009 thousands of people will line Lancaster Boulevard to witness an American red, white, and blue appreciation parade for our beloved veterans from all wars and conflicts.

A thunderous roar from the engines of a military aircraft flying over will begin the festivities. Leading the parade will be Grand Marshall, Lt. Colonel Dick Rutan (Ret.) known world-wide for his 1986 non-stop and unrefueled flight around the globe in the aircraft “Voyager.” Joining Mr. Rutan will be hundreds of parade participants traveling to the Antelope Valley from all over Southern California.

This inaugural parade is a special way to say “thank you” to the men and women who have served our country. This is also a wonderful venue to educate the community about the sacrifices our military veterans have made to preserve these United States.

The Antelope Valley Veterans Day Parade is entirely funded through donations received from local businesses, individual contributors and sponsors. We do not receive any funding from any government agency. This is an all volunteer organization!
