

Media Release

For immediate release

Former Air Force Captain and test pilot George J. Marrett will be the guest speaker at the Wine-Tasting fundraiser for the 2010 Antelope Valley Veterans Day Parade.

On Thursday, August 19th In effort to support the Antelope Valley Veterans Day Parade, retired test pilot and aviation author of “Cheating Death” will give a personal account into flying the World War II-Vintage Douglas A-1 Skyraider.” A limit of 125 tickets costing $22.00 each will be sold for this private event. Tickets can only be purchased online at www.avvparade.com .

Wine tasting, food and other entertainment will be provided.

Who: Antelope Valley Veterans' Day Parade - 2010

When: Thursday, August 19, 2010
6:00 PM to 9:30 PM

Where: Embassy Suites
39375 5th Street West
Palmdale, CA. 93550

Price: $22.00 per ticket
purchase online only at www.avvparade.com

Combat Air Rescues in Vietnam and Laos Flying the World War II-vintage Douglas A-1 Skyraider, a single-engine, propeller-driven relic flew one of the most dangerous missions of the Vietnam War, helping rescue thousands of downed Air Force and Navy pilots.

in a war of "fast movers" -- that is, jets -- those intrepid Air Force pilot Marrett flew a variety of aircraft including the Northrop T-38 Talon, Lockheed F-104 Starfighter and General Dynamics F-106 Delta Dart.